

TOASTMASTERS

FRANK

A Toastmaster with a huge reputation, Frank is always in demand whether it be a Royal function, a Charity fund-raiser, a corporate event or a City of London civic or livery dinner. His years of experience means that Frank provides his clients with the highest level of service, expert advice and a special ability to co-ordinate the most difficult and involved events. Although Frank is usually found working in the West End of London his special skills factor results in clients often asking him to work in America, Europe and the major cities within the UK. A Past President of the Society, his years of experience within the entertainment industry ensures that every client receives the very highest level of professionalism.

DAVID

David Watts was born and raised in the hotel trade in Devon and Cornwall, so providing faultless service is second nature to him. From 1991 onwards, David established himself as one of the leading Toastmasters in London and the Thames Valley. He has been instrumental in organising and conducting many hundreds of weddings, banquets, civic functions, Ladies Nights, etc., for happy, satisfied clients who value his advice, organisational ability and experience in the preparation and running all types of functions.

His excellent professional reputation is founded on his attention to detail, his immaculate turnout and his quiet, helpful, supportive authority, whilst at the same time being able to be flexible and constructive should a sudden change be necessary during a function.

Currently David is the elected President of the Society of London Toastmasters, the leading professional body established to maintain the standards and reputation of this most dignified of roles.

MIKE

Toastmaster Mike (Mr. Moustache) is renowned for his professionalism, friendliness and superb style. Mike's expertise, flair and sense of humour have held him in the highest regard by all his clientele.

Whether your event is formal or informal, he will add dignity, prestige, style, colour and fun to your Reception. As your Toastmaster, he holds the key role of co-ordinating with the Banqueting Management, photographer, band/disco, etc., to help ensure that your Celebration will be a really Special Occasion and one of the best and happiest days of your life.

Mike is a very experienced Auctioneer – for over 20 years, and he has helped raise tens of thousands of pounds for various organisations and charities.

Mike has officiated at all types of occasions and functions: for example:
Anniversaries: Award Ceremonies: Banquets and Balls: Barmitzvahs: Batmitzvahs: Charity events: Civic functions: Cocktail parties: Conferences: Corporate Hospitality: Fashion Shows: Fund Raisers: Ladies nights: Lions: Luncheons: Masonic Festivals: Rotary: Round Table: Royal Occasions: Soroptimists: Weddings of all types (Including French, German: Greek, Iranian, Italian, Jewish, Sri Lankan).